

Resilience Series

REPORT 2025

*Building a Stronger,
More Resilient Growing
Region, Together*

SOUTHERN FORESTS FOOD COUNCIL

REGIONAL IMPACT

The Series led to over 400 touchpoints with local communities, increasing climate resilience, grower capability, wellbeing & regional connections.

50+ Young growers (<35) engaged

40% Of local farmers engaged

96% Of participants will use what they learned

93% Will trial new practices following the Resilience Series

$500k

Increase in regional capacity & productivity through workshops, carbon efficiency gains and wellbeing events.

PARTNERSHIPS STRENGTHENED

SFFC partnered with DPIRD, SW WA Drought Hub, vegetablesWA, Wines of WA, RegenWA and Holyoake to coordinate expert-led events that strengthened regional resilience.

90%

Say it's "extremely important" for SFFC to support wellbeing & connection

LOOKING AHEAD...

Stronger Regional Networks

Skills and Training

Wellbeing Support

Community Connection

Climate Resilience

Innovation &
Future Readiness